That he was taken to be a doctor, and many of the passengers crowded around him begging him to examine them for what they believed to be serious bodily injuries. One passenger with a vision of big damage money before his eyes, declared to Mr. Everts that he had broken his leg, but soon after the supposed doctor had laughed at his attempted deception, the broken-limbed man was seen sturdily footing it down the track. Mr. Everts stayed with Mr. Carr all night at the latter's request, and the next morning, by which time Superintendent Lake of the N. Y. & N. H. R. R. had arrived, Mr. Everts was sent from Cornwall Bridge to Canaan on a special train, being the only passenger. Trousers Trimmed.
The August sale of trousers at Melors & Co. presents a splendid opportunity for the buyer to get a handsome Summer Trousers at trimmed prices. The big features of the sale are Value and Variety—value in high-grade fabrics in the latest fashions to fit men of every size and age—variety in hundreds of patterns in choice colorings and distinctive stripes—trousers for outing and regular wear at radical reductions from original prices. Melors & Co. take this method of clearing out all broken lines the season for which the garments are intended, a policy which they have consistently maintained for more than two decades. In addition, boys' pants prices have been revised downward, so that there is a big choice in piles of good pants and knickerbockers at thirty-nine cents a pair—a price at which you not expect to buy much at any store, but at Melors & Co. you know you can rely upon getting good value. There are rousing good sales in every section of the store this month and a bargain can be picked up at every step if you keep your eyes open.

GOOD OYSTER SET LIKELY

Authorities Say That, Despite Reports, the Conditions are Fair.

DISCOURAGING STATEMENTS MAY BE DUE TO THE BILL BEFORE THE LEGISLATURE.

(New Haven Journal-Courier.)
Despite the talk in some quarters that the oyster "set" in Long Island Sound was to prove a failure, that the consequent loss to New Haven planters would amount to at least $100,000 and that the resulting loss will amount to $2,000,000 four years hence, the statement was made last night that this report was somewhat far fetched.

It is believed in some quarters that the story has been set on foot and is being industriously circulated by growers who are desirous of creating a feeling of sympathy for themselves in order to head off if possible the progress of the bill now before the legislature at Hartford which calls for a special commission to make a new assessment of the value of the oyster farms in the sound—in order to determine as to whether the oyster growers are paying a proper tax to the state. From good authority it was stated last night that the season had been favorable for oyster spawning, the water had been mostly of the desired temperature, there had been no violent storms, that the "set" off this city was already reported as first class, and that the oysters taken up here were found to be full of spawn. This source of information expected that a good "set" would be heard from from off New Haven within a few days.

The oyster beds of Westport are to be placed under the jurisdiction of the shell fish commission, as have those of New Haven and Orange.

MILITARY AUTO TRAIN ON WAY

Said to be First Used for Military Purposes in This Country.

The first military Auto Train ever tested in this country passed through this city yesterday. It consisted of 11 covered wagons, built much like the wagons used by express companies. The train was on its way from the shops of the Autocar Company, Ardmore, Pa., to New Bedford, Mass., where it will take part in the war game. The train was in charge of Louis S. Clarke, vice president and consulting engineer of the company, who said that the start from the factory was made at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. The train will be used to carry supplies from the army's headquarters in the field. Thousands of people witnessed the novel parade and read the inscription "Quartermaster's Department, U. S. A." which appeared on the sides of each wagon.

One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." It will cure you. F. B. Brill, local agent. *135
